Soundings VII

Fidelio Trio

Saturday 12 December 2009, Wigmore Hall
6pm Pre-concert talk: writer and critic Annette Morreau and composer Joe Cutler in conversation with tonight's composers and performers
7.30pm Concert: Fidelio Trio and Patricia Rozario

Soundings, initiated in 2004 by the Austrian Cultural Forum London, presents and profiles young composers and performers from Austria and the United Kingdom in workshops, symposia and concerts. It provides composers and musicians with a unique opportunity to get to know each other and each other's work. For more information on Soundings please visit www.austria.org.uk/culture/soundings.

The 'virtuosic Fidelio Trio' (Sunday Times) have become increasingly known as vital catalysts in the expansion of contemporary piano trio repertoire. Recent recordings include acclaimed discs for NMC Bulb D147 and Delphian Records Metamorphoses DCD 34059. Performing highlights include Kings Place and Purcell Room, London, Music Viva, Portugal, National Concert Hall, Dublin, a concert tour of China and broadcasts on BBC Radio 3, WYNC and Radio New Zealand.
